Item #3 150, 160 Main Street, 233 Midland Avenue Return

Mr. Glen Vetromile, Glenmark Properties, provided elevations of the West side, Courtyard East elevation and the Courtyard North elevation. Photos displayed both buildings side by side to show the buildings corner elements beside each other.

The applicant noted that he had concerns with the HVAC venting regarding visible sleeves and/or vents so he chose to use a split system. There will be a compressor on the rooftop, cooling will be done on the rooftop, and then placed in galleries. The exterior of the building will not have vents.

On the backside of 160 and 150 buildings, the applicant will use a Magic Pack heating and cooling system. The cooling will be done in closets with no sleeves and very discreet vents.

Mr. Vetromile submitted photos of the discreet vents. They will measure 18in x 18in square vents made of aluminum panel, with narrow slats and will be painted the same color as the exterior.

Commissioner Miller asked if the venting system produce noise.

Mr. Vetromile stated that it is not a loud noise. The noise produced will be contained within our own property. Magic Pak is not overly noisy. The applicant has hired an acoustic engineer to test the noise between units and outside.

Bill Williams, Building Inspector noted that the noise level must be approved by the Village's standards.

Chairwoman Ciaramella asked about the visibility of the roof from the houses nearby.

Mr. Vetromile that the 150 building will be blocked by building 160. The 160 building rooftop has very limited view and there will be attractive fencing around the compressors.

Commissioner Gorman asked about the view from the homes on Midland Ave.

Mr. Vetromile noted that the 233 building would block the view of the roof.

Commissioner Fang stated that he appreciates the cooperation from the applicant with the design of the towers, as they will be landmark elements.

Commissioner Miller motioned to open the public hearing, seconded by Commissioner Gorman and carried unanimously by the Board.
