Chairperson Steinhagen announced the agenda as follows:

Item #1 - 230 White Plains Road, aka “The Ward House” - To determine if a recommendation shall be made to the Village Board of Trustees to designate 230 White Plains Road as a historic local landmark

Item #2 - Discussion: Recognition of potential landmark nominations, including local landmarks, interior landmarks, and historic districts for consideration as historic local landmarks

Item #1        230 White Plains Road, aka “The Ward House”

Chairperson Steinhagen invited Sal Provanzano to offer a presentation on the history of the building located at 230 White Plains Road and how this structure meets the criteria to become a historic landmark.

Resident Edward Powers expressed his support for designating 230 White Plains Road as a historic landmark.

James Veneruso, on behalf of the current owner of the building located at 230 White Plains Road, expressed his concern over the condition of the structure and his opposition to designating the site as an historic local landmark.

Item #2          Discussion: Recognition of potential landmark nominations

Chairperson Steinhagen stated that the commission is anticipating landmark nomination forms for two additional structures and encouraged residents to contact the Commission with ideas and suggestions for potential landmark nominations.

There being no further comments from the public or business before the Commission, upon motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried, the meeting was adjourned.
