Chairperson Steinhagen announced the agenda as follows:

Item #1 - 101 Main Street, aka “The Washington Hotel/Samuel Fee Building”

Item #2 - Historic Preservation Commission – membership

Item #1 - 101 Main Street, aka “The Washington Hotel/Samuel Fee Building”

Member Castellanos motioned to open the public meeting, seconded by Member Gaccione and carried unanimously.

Chairperson Steinhagen summarized the various criteria which can allow a building to be classified as an historic local landmark.

Eastchester Town Historian Richard Forlano summarized the history of 101 Main Street and historic ties to Irish and Italian Immigrants who came to Tuckahoe in the 19th and 20th centuries.

Chairperson Steinhagen noted that the public meeting was still open and will remain open throughout the Commission’s next meeting.

Item #2 - Historic Preservation Commission – membership

Member Gaccione stated that the Commission is expanding from three to five members and is currently seeking applicants interested in history and historic preservation.

Chairperson Steinhagen stated that interested residents could send a short email to the village Administrator describing why they are interested in joining the Historic Preservation Commission and their qualifications.

There being no further comments from the public or business before the Commission, upon motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried, the meeting was adjourned.
